CIDEEFF Working Papers

Call for Papers

We are pleased to announce that the CIDEEFF is interested in fostering collaboration and mentoring opportunities for emerging academics and professionals who are interested in research on national, European, and international economic, fiscal and tax law.

We are offering graduate students (students enrolled in Masters' or PhD programmes), early career professionals, and academics, who are studying or working in these fields an opportunity to present and diffuse their ongoing research.

In this regard, we are requesting submission of working papers on the following topics:

1. Tax Governance
2. Tax Litigation
3. Citizenship and Taxes
4. Digital Taxes
5. Taxes and Inequity
6. Competition and Regulation
7. International Economic Law
8. International Organizations
9. Development and Financing
10. Law & Economics
11. Sustainable Growth
12. Economic, Fiscal, Monetary Governance and the Future of the European Union

They will be submitted to a blind peer-review and, if accepted, published as part of our WP series or included in a thematic publication. In any case, publication will be openly accessible on our website.
